"WE ARE IN A GOOD POSITION TO SECURE ANOTHER SEASON OF CHAMPIONS LEAGUE FOOTBALL, THOUGH WE CANNOT BE COMPLACENT"

Good evening and welcome back to Wembley. It has been a difficult couple of weeks for us on the pitch – tonight presents an opportunity to move forward as we aim to finish strongly in our final four games of the season. Small margins have been the difference in our most recent couple of games which were disappointing for all of us yet we cannot lose sight of how far we have come. We must dust ourselves off and go again.

We are in a good position to secure another season of Champions League football, though with teams in strong form around us, we cannot be complacent and must be at our best. I believe in the players and have full confidence that they can do it.

Three of our last four games are here at Wembley so it is important we enjoy them and everyone plays their part to ensure we all make home advantage count. It is not easy for any team to play a season at a temporary home and we as a club can take great pride from the way we have adapted to it. On the pitch, we have lost only one league match here after a tricky start and had some great results in the Champions League. Off the field, together we have enjoyed some huge occasions and special atmospheres too.

Our Premier League form has been excellent in the last few months. We have lost only one game since the middle of December. We can expect a difficult game this evening as we welcome Watford and their manager Javi Gracia. They gave us a hard game at Vicarage Road in December when we came away with a 1-1 draw and they have beaten some top sides this season.

Tonight we also welcome some special guests as our mascots who have travelled all the way from China courtesy of our principal partner AIA and the AIA China Youth Football Development Programme – we hope they enjoy their night.

This evening's match also marks the launch of the Premier League's new partnership with Sky Ocean Rescue, as they seek to spread the message of the environmental issues caused by plastic. We are proud that the club is already leading the way in supporting this cause with a number of measures in place to reduce single-use plastics when our new stadium opens later this year. This is something we should all be considering in our own everyday lives – making small changes can have a huge impact in protecting our wildlife and oceans from plastic pollution. We can always do more and I know the club is continuing to explore other measures to further reduce its single-use plastic footprint.

Enjoy the game.

DAVIS DELIGHT AT SPURS PROGRESS

Sean Davis was back in a Spurs shirt for the first time in 12 years last Sunday (April 22) as he made his debut for the Legends team – and he was quick to praise the "huge progress" the club has been making under Mauricio Pochettino.

Now 38 years of age and retired as a player since 2012 following a loan spell at Bristol City from Bolton Wanderers, Sean, who played 17 games for us between 2004 and 2006, resurfaced with a 90-minute stint as the Legends battled Hastings United Vets in front of almost 2,500 fans down on the East Sussex coast and was full of praise for our present-day stars.

"Spurs have made huge progress," said the midfielder, who these days lives near Gatwick and works for a sports agency while often attending games at his old club, Fulham. "On their day they can beat anyone in the Premier League and they've got the right man in Mauricio Pochettino.

"I think they've got top players in all positions. Centre-midfield is quite strong – I'm loving Eriksen, I think he's unbelievable and he doesn't get as much praise as he should. I don't know what the stats are but the amount of goals he creates must be crazy. Dier is a solid player who can play centre-half as well and I'm a massive fan of Dembele, who was obviously at Fulham too. I don't think he realises how good he is."

It was a frustrating time for Sean and some of our ex-players from the 1980s and 1990s last weekend as a younger Hastings side with quick forward players emerged with a 5-2 win. After shipping four goals in the first half, Sean, David Howells and Kevin Watson ran the midfield areas during a resurgent spell for the Legends after the break while Justin Edinburgh and Stuart Nethercott were excellent in stemming the tide in central defence.

Josh Wynne did manage to scamper in behind and score a fifth goal for the hosts on 77 minutes, but substitutes Glen Southam and Trevor Wilkinson restored some pride with two strikes in the last six minutes as the Legends' first game in a few months following their winter break ended in a rare defeat.

The opportunity of a lifetime

Among tonight's team mascots will be nine children who have been selected from the AIA China Youth Football Development Project – a charitable programme that is supported by the club.

The Project was set up in 2014 and focuses on developing the skills of PE teachers in rural China, improving facilities at underprivileged schools and running football tournaments for children to enhance football participation in these areas. It forms part of the club and AIA's wider commitment to drive healthy lifestyles and wellbeing across Asia.

As part of their visit to London, the children also attended a special event at our Training Centre on Saturday. The youngsters and their families watched the first team train and took part in a football training session led by coaches from our Academy, joined by Hugo Lloris and Harry Kane.

During first team training, the players wore t-shirts that featured a special design from a competition run amongst the visiting children. All nine children had to design a t-shirt that displayed 'healthy living' and the winner was selected by staff at AIA and the club. At half-time tonight, six-year-old Shi Shang, the winner of the design competition, will join representatives from AIA and Club Ambassador Ledley King for a special presentation. The players have signed the t-shirts and they will be auctioned to raise additional funds for the Youth Development Programme.

SONNY COMPLETES HIS HAT-TRICK!

Heung-Min Son has been named Best Footballer in Asia for the third time.

Voted for by journalists based in Asia and Europe and presented by Chinese sports newspaper Titan Sports, the award recognises the best performances by an Asian player in a calendar year.

'Sonny' enjoyed a memorable 2017. He was named Premier League EA SPORTS Player of the Month in April with five goals in four matches, scored his first hat-trick for us in the 6-0 win against Millwall in the FA Cup in March and ended the campaign with 21 goals in 47 matches.

In November, Sonny's strike against Crystal Palace saw him become the highest-scoring Asian player in Premier League history – that was his 20th goal to overtake his idol, Park Ji-Sung, who notched up 19 for Manchester United. Sonny is now on 30.

Sonny, said: "Winning an award is always a fantastic feeling - when I saw the trophy again it made me smile!

"I try my best in every single training session, every week and every single game. That's the main thing. I'm a really lucky guy because I have such good team-mates."

Club legend Ossie supports bowel cancer awareness month

To mark Bowel Cancer Awareness Month, Club Ambassador Ossie Ardiles is supporting the eighth annual Know the Score campaign.

Bowel cancer is the UK's fourth most common cancer, with over 41,200 new cases each year. It's also the second biggest cancer killer, but it needn't be that way. Bowel cancer is treatable and curable especially if diagnosed early. Over 95% of bowel cancer patients will survive the disease for five years or more if diagnosed at the earliest stage.

Symptoms of bowel cancer can include:

- Bleeding for your bottom and/or blood in your poo,
- A change in bowel habit lasting three weeks or more,
- Extreme tiredness for no obvious reason,
- A pain or lump in your tummy,
- Unexplained weight loss

Most people with these symptoms won't have bowel cancer, but if you have one or more of these, or if things just don't feel right, visit your doctor. You're not wasting anyone's time by getting it checked out. If it's not serious, your mind will be eased, and if it is bowel cancer, the earlier you are diagnosed, the better the chance of successful treatment and cure. A trip to your doctor could save your life.

Ossie said: "Bowel cancer can affect anyone at any age so it's really important everyone is aware of the symptoms as early as possible."

Throughout football 'Star of Hope' badges are being worn during the campaign, which is supported by the Professional Footballers' Association, League Managers Association, Men's Health Forum, The Bobby Moore Fund, Adam Stansfield Foundation, Beating Bowel Cancer, Bowel Cancer UK and Know the Score's founding

KENYAN ICONS TOGETHER AT HOTSPUR WAY

This year's London Marathon winner Eliud Kipchoge paid a visit to Hotspur Way last Tuesday where he met fellow Kenyan sporting icon, Victor Wanyama.

A gold-medal winner at the 2016 Olympic Games in Beijing, 'Eli' claimed his third London Marathon last Sunday. The 33-year-old is a hero back home in Kenya and was delighted to get the chance to chat with Victor, who captains his country, and Manager Mauricio Pochettino during the visit to our training centre as a guest of sports drink Maurten.

Jurgen is mobbed by supporters after our friendly with Watford in 1994

A VISIT TO THE VICARAGE!

Andy Greeves tells a story from our vast history that has a link to our matchday opponents. This evening, he looks back at two memorable trips to Watford for Jürgen Klinsmann during his first season with us in 1994-95

Coming just eight days after we announced the signing of German international striker Jürgen Klinsmann from AS Monaco, our trip to Watford for a pre-season friendly on August 6, 1994, attracted considerable attention from supporters and the media alike.

While the Rookery Stand at Vicarage Road was closed for re-development for the fixture, the other three sections of the ground were full to capacity, with the Hornets' biggest crowd of the entire 1994-95 campaign -14,021 – present. Journalist and author Harry Harris, who was there on the day, reported in his 1995 biography Klinsmann that there were also "eight TV crews and 100 reporters, with another 25 from Germany, locked outside," such was the interest in seeing the forward's first appearance in a Tottenham shirt.

Perhaps unsurprisingly, the kick-off for the match was delayed by 15 minutes as "Klinsmania", as it was dubbed, was in full grip in Hertfordshire that afternoon. Watford's Australian midfielder Richard Johnson briefly upstaged our star striker, with a 35-yard yard shot to put the home side in front after just six minutes.

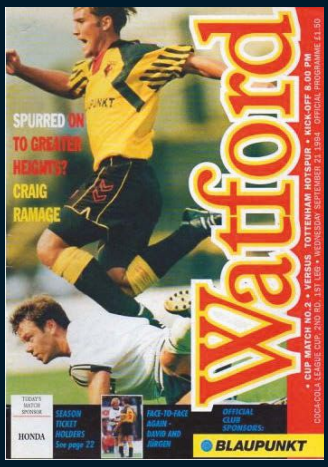
Klinsmann had numerous chances to equalise thereafter. He hit a powerful drive from the edge of the Watford penalty area midway through the first half that would have nestled in the bottom corner of the net but for a fine save from Hornets goalkeeper Kevin Miller. In the second period, he put a bullet header just over the crossbar from a David Howells cross. He went on to score with a very similar effort on his Premier League debut at Sheffield Wednesday a few weeks later.

It was left to our top scorer of the previous campaign – Teddy Sheringham



– to secure a 1-1 draw with a header from a Nick Barmby cross. Both sets of players left the pitch to rapturous applause at the end of an entertaining friendly fixture. Klinsmann, as he had been all afternoon, was mobbed once again for autographs as he left the stadium. He duly signed every shirt, programme and football handed to him on a memorable occasion for the German.

"I was genuinely moved by the reception I got from the supporters," Jurgen told the media after the match. "I simply could not believe the way I was welcomed. It gave me a truly wonderful feeling. When I came onto the pitch, I knew I had joined the right club. I am proud to be a Tottenham player. I've played at international level and for clubs in France, Italy and Germany. But what I met here today was fantastic… something really special.

> "I was genuinely moved by the reception I got from the Tottenham supporters"

"I have been training for only one day, so there is a lot of work for me to do. But I already sense that it will be fun working with a guy like Teddy Sheringham. It's (the Premier League) a very tough league and I expect a tough, difficult season. But I am ready for it. Playing twice a week, as you do over here, does not bother me. The more games the better as far as I'm concerned."

Klinsmann's first goal for us came three days later as we won 1-0 at Dublin side Shelbourne in our final pre-season match. He then netted on his competitive debut for us, in a 4-3 Premier League victory at Sheffield Wednesday on August 20, 1994, celebrating with his famous 'dive' onto the Hillsborough turf.

He scored seven times in his first six league matches for us, including a brace against Everton in a 2-0 win on his White Hart Lane debut on August 24. We witnessed the 'dive' celebration once again that night after he fired a fantastic overhead kick into the back of the Toffees' net.

Klinsmann was back on familiar surroundings on September 21 that year as we travelled to Watford for a League Cup second round, first leg tie. After just 28 seconds of the Vicarage Road encounter, Craig Ramage slotted a Tommy Mooney cross beyond our goalkeeper Ian Walker to give the hosts the lead. Within five minutes, we had equalised against our opponents from the old First Division as Darren Anderton finished off a neat passing move.

Jurgen put us in front on 17 minutes, after racing onto a Micky Hazard throughball and beating Perry Digweed in the Watford goal. The German increased our lead on 34 minutes, guiding a David Kerslake cross into the top corner of the Hornets' net and then wrapped up a first-half hat-trick with a low drive.

A lively display of attacking football from both sides continued in the second half, watched by a crowd of 13,659. Mooney scored for Watford on 65 minutes to reduce their arrears to 2-4. Goals from Sheringham and Romanian midfielder Ilie Dumitrescu increased our lead before a Gary Mabbutt own-goal saw a crazy match end 6-3 in our favour!

At the end of the game, Klinsmann was duly presented with the match ball, having scored a hat-trick.

"This ball is my first memento from my time in England," he told journalists that evening. "It has been signed by all the players and that is very special to me. I don't have a living room full of footballs because this seems to be an English tradition. It is a great feeling to have scored my first hat-trick in English football."

Jurgen scored once more in the second leg of our League Cup meeting with Watford at White Hart Lane. We went down to a 3-2 defeat to the Hornets that night, with Colin Foster on target for the visitors while Lee Nogan bagged a brace. Nick Barmby got our other goal to complete an aggregate 8-6 success!

Watford

Klinsmann's treble against Watford was the only hat-trick of his inaugural season in English football that saw him net 29 times in 50 matches for us. He departed for Bayern Munich at the end of the 1994-95 campaign only to return to N17 midway through the 1997-98 season, with nine goals in 18 matches in his second spell with us. That included four strikes in a 6-2 Premier League victory at Wimbledon, covered in 'Tottenham Tales' in our FA Cup third round programme earlier this season.

FA CUP DEBUT

Our first-ever FA Cup tie was staged at our former Northumberland Park ground on October 13, 1894, with West Herts our visitors for a first qualifying round tie. A goal from Peter Hunter and a brace from Donald Goodall gave us a 3-2 victory that afternoon. The match – played in front of around 2,000 spectators – was subsequently described as "a very hard struggle" by the local newspaper, The Weekly Herald.

We progressed to the fourth qualifying round of the competition that season, before losing 4-0 in a replay at Luton Town. West Herts meanwhile joined together with Watford St Mary's in 1898 to form the Watford Football Club we know today.

CLUB HOSTS LAUNCH OF NEW PREMIER LEAGUE/SKY OCEAN RESCUE PARTNERSHIP

Following our announcement last week where we outlined measures to reduce single-use plastics at our new stadium, we are pleased to confirm that tonight's match against Watford has been selected to celebrate the Premier League's new partnership with Sky's Ocean Rescue campaign.

The partnership will see both organisations use their global reach and appeal to raise awareness and inspire people to take positive action to reduce their single-use plastic intake, making small changes that will have a big impact.

A number of activations are planned in conjunction with the Premier League and Sky around this fixture to support the partnership. This will include a takeover of Wembley and an appearance by Plasticus, the Sky Ocean Rescue whale, made from 250 kilograms of recycled single-use plastic, the same amount dumped in our oceans every minute.

The Club is the first in the Premier League to have announced its plans to start reducing single-use plastics across club operations, with our new stadium being free from plastic straws, stirrers, cutlery and all plastic disposable packaging associated with these items. In addition, every fan that is part of our One Hotspur membership scheme next season will be given a Bag for Life that they will be encouraged to use on matchdays, while our retail outlets will phase out standard 5p carrier bags.

The Premier League intends to provide support and guidance for all its clubs on how they can phase out single-use plastic from their stadiums and operations. They will be supported by the Sky Ocean Rescue Ninjas, a specialist team of plastics experts who are dedicated to helping businesses reduce their single-use plastic usage.

Sky and the Premier League are also coming together to inspire young fans. Through the Premier League Primary Stars programme, which reaches 15,000 primary schools in England and Wales, children will be able to learn about what it means to be single-use plastic free. Using fun games and challenges, they will learn how they can make a difference and educate their parents in the process.

For secondary school pupils, the Premier League also runs the Enterprise Challenge, an opportunity to present ideas about tackling a specific issue to Premier League Executive Chairman Richard Scudamore. Next season's challenge will be a Sky Ocean Rescue theme, giving young people a chance to showcase their ideas and innovations on how to reduce the impact of single-use plastic.

Barney Francis, Managing Director, Sky Sports, said: "Sky Ocean Rescue has been running for just over a year and we are proud of the momentum we have created. We've already reached millions of people, inspiring them to make simple everyday changes to help save our oceans. Football has a unique ability to reach billions across the world and I'm delighted that the Premier League, and its clubs are getting involved to further build on our campaign. Today we're calling on football fans to make a simple change and join us to help stop our oceans drowning in plastic."

Executive Chairman of the Premier League, Richard Scudamore, added: "We are extremely proud to be joining Sky Ocean Rescue in the fight to save our oceans. As an organisation with a global audience we, and our clubs, are able to encourage people around the world to think and take positive action to reduce their use of plastic."

Club Chairman Daniel Levy, said: "We are dedicated to minimising the environmental impacts of our activities and are committed to playing our part in reducing single-use plastics across our club operations. We shall be encouraging our suppliers, partners and supporters to help us to phase out their use. This is a worldwide problem so we are delighted to see the announcement of this partnership to further raise awareness and continue to drive home this message to an even bigger audience."

In the year since it launched, Sky Ocean Rescue has already reached more than nine million people with over half a million plastic bottles being saved from Sky's offices in the UK.

And it's not just in the office that the small changes are adding up. Nearly 70,000 plastic bottles have been saved by cast and crew in Sky Sports, and a campaign at the Kia Oval last year led to 60% less plastic bottles being sold at the venue compared to the same time the year before.

You can find out more about Sky Ocean Rescue and the issues affecting our oceans at the Sky Ocean Rescue Facebook page, @skyoceanrescue on Twitter, or visit skyoceanrescue.com, while you can show your support by using #PassOnPlastic

Victor Wanyama insists we must not dwell on the disappointment of our FA Cup semi-final defeat last weekend as we look to finish the final few weeks of the season with a flourish.

There was a great deal of despondency in our dressing room at Wembley Stadium and throughout our fans in the stands as well following the 2-1 reverse to Manchester United in the last four of the competition 10 days ago, as our hopes of finishing the season with a trophy fell by the wayside.

Everything looked rosy when Dele Alli fired us ahead in the 10th minute, only for United to hit back through Alexis Sanchez and Ander Herrera to take their place in the showpiece final next month. Victor started the game on the bench, coming on for Mousa Dembele in the 78th minute but the midfield powerhouse was unable to make his mark on the game as we searched for that elusive equaliser.

The defeat gave us an unwanted record of having lost our last eight FA Cup semi-final ties but football is a fast-moving sport and after every setback, an opportunity quickly comes around to bounce back.

For us, that is tonight's match against Watford, a chance to lift the mood and take another major step towards achieving a top four finish and securing Champions League football in our new stadium next season.

And, as Victor explained, we have no alternative now but to look to the future.

"It has been tough after the semi-final, but now we need to go forward, we need to move on and I think the players have responded very well in training since that game," said the 26-year-old Kenyan international.

"We were very down but now we need to push on because there is nothing else we can do – we cannot change the result. We just want to train hard now and go again.

"The semi-final was a very close game. We were unlucky to concede the second goal. I could see the players fought hard but we were just unfortunate. Sometimes it doesn't go for you. For me personally, it was a very tough defeat to take but we can't do anything about it now – we just have to learn from it and continue going forwards.

"We always take each game as it comes. We already know our goals for the rest of the season and we want to fight for those. We want to win our last four matches now and finish the season strongly."

With a trip to bottom club West Bromwich Albion to come followed by home games against Newcastle United and Leicester City here at Wembley after this evening, we could feasibly win our last four and end the campaign on 80 points, just six short of our highest-ever tally reached last season. And if we did avoid defeat in our last four, it would leave us with just one loss from our last 20 Premier League matches – against Manchester City in our last game here – which is no small feat in this division.

But for now though, the priority is on tonight's clash against Javi Gracia's side with the aim of securing a place in the top four as quickly as possible, with Victor insisting fourth place is not our sole target.

"You never know how high we could finish. We are not looking at who is in front of us in the table, we are just looking at our next opponent. We want to go out there and try to get maximum points. That's our aim. We have to finish strongly and if we do, at the end of the season we will see where we will be."

AIA

On a personal level, it's been a difficult campaign for the former Southampton and Celtic midfielder. After enjoying such a great 2016-17, featuring in all but two of our Premier League matches during his first season with us and making 47 appearances in total, Victor has had a frustrating injury-hit term this time around.

He missed part of pre-season after suffering a knee injury in a friendly against Paris St Germain, returned to action to feature in our first two league games but then missed the best part of four months with the same injury. He was absent for the entire group stage of the Champions League and it wasn't until the turn of the year that he was available again, making his comeback in our 2-0 win at Swansea City on January 2.

Usually someone who always has a smile on his face at Hotspur Way, Victor admitted he found it hard being sidelined and watching his team-mates in action as he went through his own rehab with our medical team.

"For me, this has been one of the worst seasons I've ever had with injuries. I've struggled with injury for a long time and I didn't do pre-season because of it," he said. "I was back in briefly, then I was out for months. I've be trying to come back strong which hasn't been easy. The team has been doing well and you know when you come back from injury, you need to take it slowly and go step by step.

"That's what I've been doing and, at the moment, I'm really happy with the way I've come back from this injury. I feel now I'm getting strong and also getting fit and hopefully I can finish the season strongly.

"It makes such a big difference to miss the pre-season because it's very important to your fitness. When you miss it, it's hard to catch

CAREER SO FAR

EARLY DAYS

As a youngster, he joined the JMJ Academy in his hometown Nairobi, Kenya, before having spells with local sides Nairobi City Stars and AFC Leopards.

EUROPE BOUND

He left Kenya in 2007, joining Swedish side Helsingborg before moving to Beerschot in Belgium in the summer of 2008, spending three years with the club.

HEADING NORTH

Became the first Kenyan to play in the Scottish Premier League when he joined Celtic, making his debut against St Johnstone in August, 2011. Scored in a Champions League win over Barcelona the following November.

"SCORING THE GOAL AT LIVERPOOL WAS CERTAINLY MY BEST MOMENT OF THE SEASON. I WAS DELIGHTED TO SCORE A GOAL LIKE THAT"

up and the other players are all ahead of you. When you get injured, you need to start again and a lot is going on mentally.

"Maybe I was a bit low but I thank God that I am good again. I need to thank the staff, the players and the coaching team for giving me the support I needed to come back. All the time I have been injured, they have been with me so now I'm really happy."

Since his return, Victor has played his part during the second half of the season, including one magical moment at Anfield, when he hit a right-footed screamer to level the scores at 1-1 in our eventful 2-2 draw with Liverpool. His strike was voted Goal of the Month for February and will certainly be a contender for Goal of the Season both here at Spurs and for the Premier League itself.

"Scoring the goal at Liverpool was certainly my best moment of the season. The ball was rolling well and when I hit it, I felt that I connected properly. I was delighted to score a goal like that and to try to help the team come back."

SAINT VICTOR

Left Celtic for Southampton in July, 2013, playing 85 Premier League in three years on the south coast before he moved to Spurs. Made his debut for us in August, 2016, against Everton and scored five times in his first season.

INTERNATIONAL SCENE

He made his debut for Kenya aged just 15 in a friendly against Nigeria in May, 2007. Appointed captain of his country in 2013, he has won 50 caps and scored six goals.

FIFA WORLD CUP RUSSIA 2018

ROAD TO RUSSIA

While there's still a lot to focus on at club level, with only a few weeks to go, the countdown to this summer's World Cup in Russia is on! Ahead of the showpiece tournament, BILLY SHAW chats to members of our current squad who have helped their respective nations qualify over the last two years to find out about their memories of past World Cups and their predictions for 2018. The series continues tonight with England left-back DANNY ROSE...

What was the first World Cup you can remember watching?
France '98 is the first one I remember. I was only just coming up to eight then but I recall watching the England-Argentina game at home with my mum when David Beckham got sent off and Michael Owen scored 'that' goal.

Who were the stars that year?
Denilson and Ronaldo for Brazil, Owen and Beckham, who were obviously two of the stars for England, and Emmanuel Petit for France – they're the ones that stick out. I remember Petit scoring the third goal for France when they beat Brazil 3-0 in the final.

Have you ever been to a World Cup match as a supporter?
I've never been but it's something I'd like to do when I retire from football.

Ronaldo was the star man for Brazil in 1998

If there was one World Cup game in history that you could have gone to, which one would it be and why?
I would have only just been born, but you hear about Italia '90 when England lost to West Germany – everybody speaks about the moment when Paul Gascoigne got a yellow card to be suspended for the final and he cried. Obviously England went out anyway so they never got that far, but I'd like to have seen that semi-final.

Gazza's tears at Italia 90...

What are the best memories you have of your own country at the World Cup?
I'd probably say 2002 when England played Argentina and David Beckham scored the penalty to give us a 1-0 win. Those two games against Argentina in 1998 and 2002 were both memorable ones for me.

What is the best match you've ever seen at the finals?
Off the top of my head, I'd maybe pick Brazil v Germany at the last World Cup. Brazil were the home nation and everybody was hoping they'd go on and win it but Germany managed to score seven and caught everyone by surprise with a quite stunning win. They then went on to win the tournament as well.

Germany shock Brazil (and the rest of the world) last time out

And the best goal?
It might be a random one but, aside from Michael Owen's goal against Argentina in 1998, I remember Ronaldo when he scored for Brazil against Turkey. This would have been in Japan in 2002. It was the semi-final, he got into the box and toe-poked the ball to catch everyone by surprise and score. That goal took Brazil to the final.

What is the most unusual kit you've seen at the tournament?
The Germany kit from 1994 where they had red, yellow and black bits along the shoulders.

"I'M PICKING SONNY AND ERIKSEN TO HAVE VERY GOOD TOURNAMENTS"

David Beckham against Argentina...

Who do you think will make an impact at this year's World Cup?
I'm picking Sonny (Heung-Min Son) and Christian Eriksen to have very good tournaments for South Korea and Denmark. As for teams, obviously I want England to do well but I think Belgium can definitely challenge as well.

Could Sonny light up this year's tournament?

What's being said

Jaden Brown, Development Squad left-back and England youth international

"I think Danny fits in very well with the England team, especially with the fact that they like to play their full-backs high and wide. In recent games they've played with three at the back and two wing-backs – I think that suits him well because he gets very good crosses into the box. Also in a back four he works well, but as a modern-day left-back. He knows that he can defend, he makes a lot of tackles, a lot of blocks and I don't think many players like playing against him because he gets forward a lot, crosses the ball well and makes a few goals too. His speed is very important because in every game he comes up against a fast winger and if they're not quick, they're very skilful so he needs that extra pace to be quicker to react.

"Being fast enables you to catch up and make the tackle when needed. I think he has the potential to be a big player for England at the World Cup, particularly with his crosses into the box for strikers like Harry Kane and Jamie Vardy."

REMEMBER WHEN...

...we previously played Watford during April? In fact we've only played them twice during this month, winning 4-0 last season and 4-1 in an FA Cup semi-final in 1987. Villa Park was the venue for the cup clash on April 11 and we enjoyed a resounding victory, racing into a 3-0 lead before half-time. Steve Hodge set the ball rolling in the 11th minute, Clive Allen doubled the lead two minutes later while cousin Paul added a third 10 minutes before the interval. Hodge scored again in the second half before Malcolm Allen headed in a consolation for Graham Taylor's side. Last season, on April 8, we welcomed the Hornets to the Lane having won six games on the bounce and once again we led 3-0 by half-time, Dele Alli, Eric Dier and Heung-Min Son on target. Nine minutes into the second, Sonny added his second and we comfortably saw out the remainder of the game.

ON THIS DAY APRIL 30

SPURS 2-0 ARSENAL

The last-ever North London derby at White Hart Lane took place on this day last year and we ensured it ended with a home win. Two goals in three minutes settled the issue, Dele Alli opening the scoring before a Harry Kane penalty sealed the points.

SPURS 1-0 BOLTON

A crucial victory over Bolton Wanderers on this day 12 years ago kept alive our hopes of a first-ever top four finish in the Premier League. Aaron Lennon scored the winner on the hour, but defeat at West Ham United on the final day of the season meant we had to settle for fifth place.

SPURS 2-0 LIVERPOOL

League champions Liverpool only lost eight games in 1982-83, one of them coming on this day 35 years ago. We'd already beaten Arsenal (5-0) and Ipswich Town (3-1) in our previous games at the Lane and enjoyed a 2-0 win over Liverpool thanks to a Steve Archibald double.

MANAGER:

JAVI GRACIA

Gracia spent his career as a La Liga journeymen, featuring as a defensive midfielder for a variety of Spanish teams including Villarreal before hanging up his boots in 2004. The 47-year-old went into management via the Villarreal youth set-up and has coached in Spain and Russia before arriving at Vicarage Road in January following the departure of Marco Silva. An intense, passionate coach, expect to see him spend the entire 90 minutes today on the edge of his technical area, dictating Watford's play.

FORM GUIDE:

Watford are currently struggling to end their season as positively as they would have wished. Heavy defeats to Arsenal and Liverpool in early March kicked off a winless streak that means their fans could not entirely convince themselves they were safe from relegation. However, last Saturday's 0-0 draw against Crystal Palace has left them nine points clear of the drop zone with three games to play.

ORESTIS KARNEZIS

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 11.07.85
Greek international Karnezis joined Watford on a season-long loan in the summer from Serie A club Udinese, who he joined in 2013 from Panathinaikos. A regular in his national team, the 32-year-old stopper got his opportunity at Watford this term following an injury to Heurelho Gomes this season and he has taken that chance with aplomb, keeping former Spur Gomes out of the side.

HEURELHO GOMES

POSITION: GOALKEEPER
DATE OF BIRTH: 15.02.81
All Tottenham fans will recognise the name Heurelho Gomes following his six-year spell at the club between 2008-14. The popular Brazilian goalkeeper has become a huge favourite at Vicarage Road due to his all-encompassing commitment and clear connection with the Watford fanbase. A back injury in January has curtailed his performances this term but manager Javi Gracia knows he has a consistent and talented performer on the bench should he be needed.

Prior to his time in Naples – where he spent four seasons and won the Coppa Italia in 2012 and 2014 – Britos broke through the ranks at Fenix before quick-fire moves to Montevideo Wanderers and Bologna followed.

Former Spur Etienne Capoue averages 1.7 interceptions per game in the league – the joint highest in the Hornets' squad.

5 SEBASTIAN PRODL

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 21.06.87
When Watford returned to the Premier League in 2015, Prodl was the club's first signing on a five-year deal following the end of his contract at Bundesliga side Werder Bremen, who the Austrian had joined in 2008. Before that, the tall and imposing central defender began his career at Sturm Graz. Prodl first played for his country in 2007 and now has 51 international caps .

6 ADRIAN MARIAPPA

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 03.10.86
Mariappa is in his second spell at Vicarage Road after coming through the ranks of the youth team at the club. He is a local lad, born in Harrow and played for Watford between 2005 and 2012 before moves to Reading and then Crystal Palace. He returned to Watford two years ago and the Jamaican international remains a versatile defender, capable of playing anywhere across the back four.

15 CRAIG CATHCART

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 06.04.89
Cathcart's return to Watford's starting XI in the recent loss to Huddersfield Town finally ended a injury plagued time for the 29-year-old. The Northern Ireland centre-back came through the ranks at Man United before showing he could cope in the Premier League during Blackpool's only year in the division in 2010-11. He signed for Watford in June, 2014, and has become a hugely influential and respected member of the Watford dressing room.

Before he signed for the Magpies in 2013, he had first caught the eye at Heerenveen and, especially, Feyenoord and he has also played for the Netherlands national side since 2012, winning 30 international caps.

The former Spanish Under-20 international usually plays as right-back for Watford after signing from Alaves in July last year. He signed a four-year deal at Vicarage Road and has proven to be a wise acquisition although he had a two-month spell out of the side due to a hamstring problem. He appears to have fully overcome that complaint now though and is expected to feature until the end of the season.

The 33-year-old defender is one of the veterans in the Watford dressing room but he remains an integral member of Javi Gracia's squad. He has made 25 appearances in the league so far. Despite being born in Germany, Holebas played his international football for Greece and before he joined Watford he was best known for a four-year spell with Olympiacos before signing for his current club from Roma in 2015.

27 CHRISTIAN KABASELE

POSITION: DEFENDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 24.02.91
Kabasele has had a torrid time recently having pulled his hamstring following a match with Stoke City back in January. Before then, the 27-year-old Congolese-born Belgian had been an important cog in Watford's wheel and had played 27 times this season. Before signing for Watford in a £6m move in July 2016, he played for Genk in Belgium.

16 ABDOULAYE DOUCOURE

POSITION: MIDFIELDER
DATE OF BIRTH: 01.01.93
Doucouré has recently been linked with a host of Premier League clubs after a wonderfully productive season in Watford's midfield. The French Under-21 international came through the youth set-up at Rennes and became a big fan favourite at the club before his move to Watford in 2016. A loan spell at Granada followed where his strength and tactical knowhow improved.

Blessed with a seemingly inexhaustible work-rate and a desire to constantly get forward, Hughes is certainly a player to watch in the future. Turning 23 just last week, Hughes has a bright career ahead of him.

TROY DEENEY

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 29.06.88
Blessed with great strength and an old-fashioned centre forward's knowhow and ability in the air, Deeney is the man Watford turn to for goalscoring and leadership. The Watford captain has played over 300 games for the club since he signed in 2010 after coming through the ranks at Walsall. During the 2014-2015 season, Deeney became the first-ever Watford player to score 20 or more goals in three consecutive seasons.

JEROME SINCLAIR

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 20.09.96
Sinclair has only played a handful of matches this season but there is no doubt he is hotly-tipped star of the future. The 21-year-old became the youngest ever player in Liverpool's history when he played for their first team in 2012 against his former club, West Bromwich Albion aged just 16. Following a loan spell at Wigan, he moved to Vicarage Road in January, 2016.

ANDRE CARRILLO

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 14.06.91
The right-sided winger was signed by the then-Watford head coach Marco Silva in August last year after the duo first worked together at Portuguese club Sporting Lisbon. The Peruvian forrward has an impressive turn of pace and can cause plenty of headaches for defenders. He is at Vicarage Road on a season-long loan from Benfica and started his career at Alianza Lima before his move to Sporting in 2011.

ANDRE GRAY

POSITION: FORWARD
DATE OF BIRTH: 26.06.91
Gray became Watford's record signing last summer when he made a reported £18.5m switch from Burnley. He had spent two seasons at Turf Moor, scoring 32 times as the club won promotion to the Premier League. The Italian international has Nigerian parents but opted for Italy in 2014 after breaking through at Roma in 2005. Several loan periods followed at clubs including Modena, Bari and Parma before rising to prominence at Sampdoria and Anderlecht. A move to Watford followed in August, 2015, but limited game-time this season has impacted on his goalscoring.

ONE TO WATCH

Watford had their work cut out signing the Brazilian youngster as several clubs chased the 20-year-old attacker for his signature and it is easy to see why. He scored five goals in his first 11 games for the club to underline his prowess and his pace and attacking intent has scared opposition defences all season. Signed in a five-year deal from Fluminense last summer, Richarlison has played 10 times for Brazil's Under-20s side.

DOUBLE EDGE

Billy Lane's career got underway in the typical Spurs style of the 1920s. Born in Tottenham, he served his time at our nursery side Northfleet United before returning to White Hart Lane to sign as a professional in May, 1924.

And with those initials, William Henry Lane was certainly destined to play for us!

A centre-forward who scored goals at all levels, Lane was given his debut by manager Peter McWilliam in a goalless draw at Notts County in September, 1924, and although he faced strong competition for a place in our Division One side at the time, he never disappointed.

There was one report claiming that Lane was dropped as a consequence of him kicking the ball into the crowd after he had a goal disallowed. Whatever the reason, Billy moved on to Leicester City late in 1926 but once again he found himself in the frustrating role of understudy and playing regularly in the reserves.

By May, 1928, he was with Reading but when he moved to Brentford the following year, things clicked into place for him and he started scoring regularly.

Watford were in Division Three (South) at the time and they snapped up Lane in May, 1932, where the highlight of his four-year stay was a hat-trick in three minutes against Leyton Orient.

He later played for Bristol City and Orient, returning to Watford as a guest player during the war. He moved into coaching with Brentford and managed in non-league before taking over at Brighton and steering them into the Second Division in 1958.

Triple Measure

Jurgen Klinsmann scored a hat-trick when we beat Watford 6-3 in the second round of the League Cup at Vicarage Road in September, 1994. We subsequently lost the return leg 3-2 at the Lane. Darren Anderton, Teddy Sheringham and Ilie Dumitrescu also scored in that first game with Craig Ramage, Tommy Mooney and Andy Hessenthaler replying for the Hornets.

MAIN ISSUE

Our programme for Watford's visit to the Lane on August 17, 1985, was a 32-page mixture of two and four colour printing that cost 60p. The front cover featured supporters from Spurs and Watford standing together under the heading 'The Way Forward.'

This was a response to the tragic events at Bradford and Brussels with chairman Irving Scholar taking over page two, appealing for improved behaviour throughout football.

"These events must never be allowed to happen again...the eyes of the world are upon us and we must show them that these isolated incidents are not reflective of our game," he wrote.

Skipper Steve Perryman was the main interview with new signings Chris Waddle and Paul Allen also featured. Ted Buxton had joined us as chief scout, Dave Leworthy was the poster and tribute was paid to Jim 'Dodger' Joyce who had served the club for 66 years but sadly had recently died.

Watford boss Graham Taylor introduced a quality squad that included John Barnes, Brian Talbot, Nigel Callaghan, Luther Blissett, Kenny Jackett and Colin West.

Front Page

The year 1985 also saw the Tottenham riots and the football tragedies of Heysel and Bradford. The pound was at an all-time low and 17-year-old Boris Becker (pictured) became the youngest player to win Wimbledon. Live Aid rocked the world and the Anglo-Irish agreement was signed. The Sinclair C5 was launched.

Mapp and Lucia was on TV, Teen Wolf at the cinema and Madonna's 'Into the Groove' was top of the UK charts.

LOCAL HERO

Chris Waddle scored twice on his Spurs debut when we beat Watford 4-0 at the Lane on the opening day of the 1985-86 season. He had just joined us from Newcastle United the month before and Paul Allen, also making his first Spurs appearance, marked the occasion with a goal while future Hornet Mark Falco completed the scoring.

We subsequently lost by the only goal – scored by Luther Blissett – at Vicarage Road in the December as we went on to finish 10th in the division. Watford finished 12th.

Waddle was born in Gateshead and was not initially taken on by Newcastle following a trial. But once he established his reputation on the wing in non league circles, the Magpies returned to sign him in July, 1980.

Within two months he had made his senior debut and played his part as United gained promotion back to Division One in 1984. He was soon a regular England international and continued to represent his country after moving to Spurs.

He left us for Marseille in July, 1989, and his future clubs included Sheffield Wednesday, Sunderland and Burnley where he was player-manager. Chris was the 1993 'Footballer of the Year.'

The club recently announced a new partnership with Florida Elite Soccer Academy, one of the largest and most progressive youth football organisations in the USA, as part of our continued drive to support the development of the game at grassroots level in North America.

Having signed an initial three-year agreement that will consist of a fully-qualified Tottenham Hotspur coach working alongside Florida Elite's coaching staff all year round, the partnership will help train multiple elite teams, while overseeing player development using renowned coaching methods developed within the Tottenham Hotspur Academy. Florida Elite players will also have the chance to visit London and train at our world-class Training Centre.

We have been impressed with Florida Elite's infrastructure and the synergies it has to our playing and coaching philosophy. We are delighted to be partnering with such a prominent academy and look forward to working with them to develop the next generation of footballers in America."

Sean Bubb, Executive Director at Florida Elite, added: "Florida Elite Soccer Academy pledges to be a full-service soccer organisation dedicated to the growth and enrichment of its participating members. Oliver Skipp on the charge against Arsenal

LADS RUN RIOT AGAINST YOUNG GUNNERS

Reo Griffiths scored four as our Under-18s rounded off their league season with a dominant 9-0 victory over a slightly younger Arsenal side at Hotspur Way last Tuesday.

In a reversal of fortunes from November, when our young team suffered a 6-0 defeat at the hands of the Gunners at their training ground, we overpowered our north London rivals, who finished with nine men, to leapfrog Leicester City and secure a fourth-place finish in the Under-18 Premier League.

Griffiths was denied by goalkeeper Daniel Barden and then saw a fabulous volley ruled out for offside before embarking on a powerful run and setting the ball up for Rodel Richards to run onto and curl into the top corner to give us a 28th-minute lead.

Richards doubled his tally on the half-hour, ramming into the net after TJ Eyoma's header from a corner was blocked, before we made it three goals in six minutes. Griffiths appeared to be fouled as he burst in from the left but the ball ran kindly for Dilan Markanday, who beat his man in the box and clipped low into the corner.

Griffiths picked up a cross-field ball to fire home on his right foot four minutes after the restart before working the ball across to Markanday to score from a similar position six minutes later. Jamie Bowden picked out Armando Shashoua whose header hit the bar at the end of a fine move but when Bowden was upended as he went for the rebound, Griffiths scored from the spot with 67 minutes gone.

Less than 60 seconds later, Arsenal substitute Mazeed Ogungbo accidentally steered past his own keeper with Griffiths closing in again before the striker completed his fourth hat-trick of the season – and second against the Gunners after a treble in our 4-1 home victory in the League Cup semi-finals in February – by chipping Barden from an acute angle after Bowden set him up.

Arsenal lost two players to injury with 10 minutes left and, having used all their allotted substitutes, were forced to play on with nine men. We made it 9-0 two minutes from time when Tariq Hinds won a tackle in the Arsenal area and Griffiths converted from eight yards.

It means Scott Parker's first domestic campaign in charge has concluded with excellent team performances in back-to-back London derby victories having also beaten Chelsea 3-0, with attentions now turning to the end-of-season tournaments in Germany and Holland, where he'll be looking for further development from his players.

"It was a fantastic performance," said Scott. "The lads played really well. The last two games have been really good in that sense – goals, good attacking play and two clean sheets against two very good teams.

"Obviously it's important to remember that Arsenal beat us 6-0 earlier in the season and they've got a big game coming up in the FA Youth Cup Final, where they might have some different players on display, but our finishing was good and our all-round play was pleasing. From start to finish we played some lovely football through the lines and penetrated really well. It was a really good way to finish the league season and it effectively guarantees fourth place in the table as well."

Spurs: De Bie (c), Tainio, Hinds, Skipp (Thorpe 76), Eyoma (P Maghoma 76), Dinzeyi, Markanday, Bowden, Griffiths, A Shashoua, Richards (Clarke 68). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, Mukendi.

DERBY DELIGHT AS CHELSEA SUFFER THE BLUES

Goals from Reo Griffiths, Rodel Richards and Dilan Markanday, plus a penalty save from goalkeeper Jonathan De Bie, capped a magnificent team performance as our youngsters inflicted Chelsea Under-18s' first home defeat in three years at Cobham recently.

Calm and collected in our passing at the back and always a threat going forward, we fully deserved the result against a side that secured the Under-18 Premier League southern division title at the weekend and are in the final of the FA Youth Cup.

Griffiths got us off and running with a shot from the edge of the box that deflected up off defender Jack Wakely and looped over goalkeeper Karlo Ziger.

That came amid a first half which we completely dominated but when Chelsea had a spell in the ascendancy and won a penalty at the start of the second period, our strength and desire was reflected in De Bie's save – a crucial moment that could have turned the momentum, had Martell Taylor-Crossdale scored.

Richards killed the hosts off with a second goal on 74 minutes, just moments after coming on, before the lively Markanday converted Tariq Hinds' cross to complete a superb 3-0 win 10 minutes from the end.

Spurs: De Bie (c), Tainio, Hinds, Skipp, Eyoma, Dinzeyi, Markanday (Clarke 83), Bowden (Parrott 81), Griffiths, A Shashoua, Patterson (Richards 71). Substitutes (not used): Oluwayemi, P Maghoma.

ACADEMY PROFILE: RAYAN CLARKE (WINGER)

Born: April 5, 2001, in North Middlesex Hospital.

Last school: Highams Park School.

When did you first start training for Spurs? When I was very young, with the Under-8s.

Who do you like to watch in training in our first team and why? Lucas Moura because he's very explosive and he's got some skills that I'd like to add to my own game. He's exciting to watch and every time he gets on the ball, you get the feeling he can do something special with it, creating chances out of nothing.

Which overseas league do you follow closest and which players from it do you most appreciate? I watch La Liga and I like a bit of Lionel Messi, but I prefer Cristiano Ronaldo. I like the way Philippe Coutinho has played since he's gone to Barcelona as well.

Any other sports men or women in your family? No.

First family holiday? I went to Miami in Florida when I was nine to visit a close family friend. It was the most enjoyable holiday I've had. It was hotter than I expected but also a bit quieter.

If you could meet anyone famous outside of football, who would it be and why? Anthony Joshua because he's very successful while being very humble at the same time.

Which social media platform do you use most? Snapchat.

FIFA or Call of Duty? FIFA.

Golf or shopping? Shopping.

Smart or casual? Casual.

What do you do to chill out on a day off? Go to one of my friends' houses or go to the cinema. I like watching superhero films like The Avengers.

If not a footballer what would you like to be? I'd be an actor. I was pretty good at drama in school and I'd love to be in one of The Avengers films. I'd be the good guy – not the main one, but one of the guys who comes along and helps to get the job done!

BENNETTS' SET-PIECE DOUBLE SECURES LEAGUE STATUS

Two Keanan Bennetts free-kicks saw our 10 men come from a goal down to secure Premier League 2 survival against nemeses Chelsea at Stamford Bridge recently.

Having matched up to the athletic and powerful hosts for the bulk of the game, even in spite of their one-man advantage, we suffered a blow when Joshua Grant sent a header spinning into the net from a corner mid-way through the second half.

But there was no lying down from Wayne Burnett's brave Under-23 charges, who knew a long-overdue victory over Chelsea's youngsters would make sure we can't be caught by Sunderland or Manchester United in the division's last relegation spot.

Within two minutes of going behind we were level when Bennetts clipped a free-kick over the wall and into the exposed side of Marcin Bulka's net.

And six minutes later, the wide man went wheeling away in delight after bending another set-piece low around the wall and into the bottom corner to make it 2-1.

Our own defensive wall had stood firm on several occasions earlier in the game after centre-back Christian Maghoma picked up two yellow cards inside 13 first-half minutes for separate fouls on Chelsea striker Daishawn Redan to get his marching orders and unwillingly leave us with an uphill battle.

But 17-year-old midfielder Oliver Skipp dropped into the back four alongside Japhet Tanganga and was heroic, especially when he kept up with the speedy Redan to make a vital covering tackle on the break after Tanganga's header at the other end was cleared off the line.

Celebration time at the Bridge

We managed the game well in the latter stages to keep possession away from Chelsea and extend our unbeaten run in the division to seven games. Our previous home win over Derby had put us in a strong position to finally stave off any threat of the drop – and this result got us mathematically over the line with one match, at home to Manchester City on Wednesday, still to play.

"It was an excellent all-round team performance," said coach Burnett. "It was very difficult after we'd had a man sent off but the pleasing thing for me was that the players stuck to the plan that we spoke about at half-time, showed real determination, resilience and every single one of them was very, very good.

"For large parts of the first half it was quite an even contest. They've got some very good, high-calibre players but so have we and we knew that if we could contain them from an offensive point of view, we'd have an opportunity to score. Our plan was to try to get after them but when we had a man sent off we had to play a little bit deeper at times so it was pleasing for me that we were able to do that.

"Oliver Skipp has come back in tonight and had a very efficient and effective performance. He started off in midfield and then he had to change positions, but he looked just as comfortable as a central defender as he did as a central midfield player.

"Both of Keanan's free-kicks were well-executed. He scored one against Arsenal as well, so technically he's very good.

"He has this ability to make the ball get up and over the wall quickly so I'm pleased for him that he scored two goals but more importantly I'm pleased for the team that we've gone to Stamford Bridge against a very good Chelsea team and not only won, but limited them to few chances."

SKY'S THE LIMIT!

Slick. Sharp. Stylish. A few words to describe our new contemporary premium offering – The Sky Lounge.

Located at the highest vantage point of the stadium, guests can enjoy the combination of spectacular, panoramic views across London and the comfort of match seats in prime location on the halfway line.

Based in the eaves of the stadium in the East and West Stand, the Sky Lounges offer a completely unique matchday experience more in keeping with a West End wine bar than a traditional football stadium.

Upon arrival, members will be greeted with complimentary welcome drinks, followed by inclusive, informal, relaxed dining consisting of high quality bowl food and canapés. Members can enjoy both the stunning environment and a range of drinks and cocktails.

"I cannot think of too many better places in the stadium to spend time before and after a game, especially to impress a client or enjoy a drink with friends and family. If you want to be part of somewhere cool and quirky, then you'd choose the Sky Lounge," Andy O'Sullivan, Venue Director. "It is quite unlike anything available anywhere in the Premier League and is sure to be a massive hit with all members."

Overseeing the pitch, the floor to ceiling windows beautifully frame the pre-match build up while members relax with their guests; all in the illustrious company of the lounge hosts, the Spurs Legends.

As well as access to every home game, members will also have a host of unique benefits including car parking (one space per four seats) and complimentary access to private shuttles; all coming together to encapsulate a completely unique matchday experience.

There is little doubt that the club has set a new benchmark for sports entertainment services in the New Stadium. The Sky Lounge is incomparable to any other lounge or package in stadiums across the country, making it completely extraordinary and a day your guests will remember for a long time – regardless of the result.

There is a commonly used term in English football, "a typical old-fashioned English centre-forward". For anyone who watched football in the 1950s and 60s it means a big, bustling striker hurtling into defenders and goalkeepers like a human battering ram, bulldozing his way to goal without a care for the pain he was inflicting or suffering.

When the phrase is used in the Spurs' context one name springs to mind, that of Bobby Smith. The description is apt but does not really do Smith justice. He was indeed a big, bustling striker who did bulldoze his way through defences and if there was a chance of scoring he cared not a jot for the risk of injury, but he was much more than that. He was a skilful centre-forward who relied as much on guile and subtlety as sheer brute strength. He had to be to establish a place in the finest football team the country had produced.

Smith first made his name with Chelsea but was unable to displace Blues legend, Roy Bentley, and when Jimmy Anderson made an approach in December, 1955, Smith was languishing in their reserves. At the time we were in dire straits, one place off the bottom of the table and struggling to score but Smith's 10 goals in the second half of that season helped avoid the drop and almost turned the season right round as we reached the FA Cup semi-final.

Smith then embarked on a goal-scoring rampage. In 1957-58 he equalled Ted Harper's club record of 36 League goals in a season, added 57 more in the next two seasons during which he became the latest member of our '100 Club' when he scored twice in a 2-2 draw at home to Burnley in April, 1959.

At the end of August, 1960, Bobby celebrated passing George Hunt's record 125 League, and 138 total, goals with a superb hat-trick against Blackpool.

He went on to top-score in the Double-winning side and his most important of the season probably came in the League match with Sheffield Wednesday, our only challengers for the title, at White Hart Lane in mid-April, 1960.

> "HE WAS A SKILFUL CENTRE-FORWARD WHO RELIED AS MUCH ON GUILE AS SHEER BRUTE STRENGTH"

BOBBY SMITH STATS

SMITH, Robert Alfred (1955-64)
Position: Centre-forward
Born: Lingdale, North Yorkshire, February 22, 1933
Signed from: Chelsea December 1955. Transferred to Brighton & Hove Albion May 1964.
Also played for: Redcar United, Chelsea, Brighton and Hove Albion, Hastings United, Banbury United, England

First goal:	January 7, 1956 v Boston United (FA Cup 3rd rd) (H) won 4-0
100th goal:	April 8, 1959 v Burnley (Division One) (H) drew 2-2
Final goal:	December 26, 1963 v West Bromwich Albion (Division One) (A) drew 4-4

We were expected to clinch the championship in style but the Owls were not prepared to accept the inevitable without a battle. Their tough-tackling upset our rhythm and they deservedly took the lead with a Don Megson goal. Up against the rugged Peter Swan it was just the type of physical battle Smith relished but when he struck it was with a combination of craft and power. Terry Dyson beat Swan to a long clearance and headed the ball to Smith. He flicked the ball over Megson's head and hit an unstoppable first-time volley into the roof of the net. A minute later Les Allen grabbed our second and the title was won.

With the arrival of Jimmy Greaves much of the goalscoring weight was taken off Smith's broad shoulders. He was still the aggressive spearhead of the attack, but now he could concentrate his strength and commitment on unsettling defences while Greaves hovered around picking up the pieces.

Although not always first choice to partner Greaves, the pair of them formed a devastating partnership with Greavsie the first to admit that much of his success was down to the unselfish work of Smith.

Bobby scored our first goal in the 1962 FA Cup final and netted four as we marched to European Cup-Winners' Cup success in 1963. He garnered 13 in 15 England games, many of them alongside Greaves, but eventually the physical strain he put on his body began to take its toll.

After becoming the first Spurs player ever to score 200 goals for the club, Smith departed for Brighton and Hove Albion in May, 1964, but remains second on our all-time goalscoring list with 208 strikes, behind Greaves on 266.

CLUB LAUNCHES LATEST EMPLOYMENT OPPORTUNITIES FOR LOCAL PEOPLE

The club is working in partnership with Levy UK to recruit local people for roles within the catering team at the new stadium, with Jan Vertonghen on hand to launch the initiative recently.

Our Belgian defender visited Percy House, our new enterprise, skills and training hub, to meet participants and learn more about the jobs and the development programmes they will receive as part of the recruitment process.

There are vacancies for 40 senior positions and 1,600 matchday jobs within the catering and premium areas. These jobs will be available for local people to apply for as part of our continued drive to generate employment opportunities within the Tottenham area through the stadium scheme.

Furthering our commitment to development, 120 applicants will be offered the opportunity to complete a Level 2 HABC certificate in Customer Service, funded and facilitated by the Tottenham Hotspur Foundation. This will consist of learning how to deal with customers face to face and how to maintain a positive and customer-friendly attitude. All candidates who pass this course will then be guaranteed an interview for one of the food and drink roles in the new stadium.

Levy UK was appointed the stadium's official catering partner in February, 2017, and will be delivering world class and innovative catering all year round for matchday and non-matchday events.

In total, the completed stadium development will support around 3,500 jobs, with £293 million pumped into the local economy each year. This represents an increase of 1,700 new jobs and £166 million local spending a year – an enormous impact for an area in real need of new jobs and more economic activity.

Sarah Ebanja, Chief Executive of Tottenham Hotspur Foundation, said: "We are delighted to be working with Levy UK to be generating further employment opportunities within the Tottenham area. This is a further example of innovative employability programmes that we are delivering in line with the stadium development scheme."

Charles Nicol, Managing Director of Levy UK, added: "Tottenham Hotspur's fantastic new stadium will be one of London's premier sports destinations. We are looking for a team of local people who are full of energy and passionate about delivering the highest standards of service to ensure we offer a world-class experience for all visitors to this new entertainment destination."

Speaking at the launch, Jan said: "I am proud to play for a club that supports its local people and gives them meaningful employment opportunities. As players, we're extremely excited to start playing in our new stadium – but more importantly, the stadium is going to also have a huge impact on the local area and the lives of many that will benefit from projects like this."

To apply for a food and drink role at the new stadium please visit www.levyeventjobs.co.uk/spursnewstadium

Foundation champions social mobility apprenticeships

The Tottenham Hotspur Foundation has teamed up with a unique social mobility charity to transform the lives of young people in North London.

Leadership Through Sport & Business (LTSB) is a pioneering scheme that helps bright youngsters from disadvantaged backgrounds establish high-level careers in business and finance, giving them opportunities they would never normally have.

The two-year scheme includes four months of pre-apprenticeship training to prepare 16- to 24-year-olds for professional environments. Our Foundation will provide a Sports Leadership qualification and volunteering opportunities, while LTSB delivers employability skills and enrichment with major firms.

The College of Haringey, Enfield and North East London (CONEL) will ensure that the young people have the recognised Association of Accounting Technicians qualifications to add to their CV.

The programme is recruiting people 16 to 21 years of age who have at least five GCSEs at C (Level 4) and above, with minimum B (Level 6/7) in Maths and English.

Chief Executive of our Foundation, Sarah Ebanja, said: "We are committed to increasing the quality and quantity of apprenticeships for local youngsters in Tottenham. This programme is designed to give young people a helping hand and develop them into well-rounded members of their community and dedicated, hardworking employees."

Caroline Adair, Chief Executive of LTSB, said: "It's great to be back with Spurs. They were the original football Foundation partners of this transformative programme, and their commitment to the local community is clear in their support of our work."

Andy Forbes, Executive Principal of CONEL & City and Islington College, said: "We're proud to be an integral part of this highly successful programme. It's been a very productive partnership over the years, helping many young people achieve the qualifications to establish their careers, and find the opportunities their abilities deserve."

To apply for the scheme, please go to the website www.leadershipthroughsport.org

JUNIOR MEMBERS MEET SONNY AND LUCAS

ONE HOTSPUR JUNIOR MEMBERS ENJOYED THE OPPORTUNITY OF A LIFETIME AT OUR ANNUAL JUNIOR FAN FORUM AT THE TRAINING CENTRE EARLIER THIS MONTH

We asked Junior Members for their most creative and interesting questions for the players to answer, and our competition got a huge response. We picked 40 lucky winners who were given the chance to attend this very special event.

The day began with the excited young fans and their families watching the first team train before the opportunity for pictures and autographs.

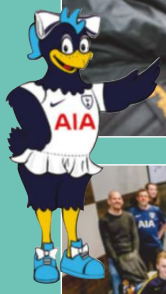
Our guests then headed off to the press auditorium, where the children fired a range of tricky questions at Lucas and Sonny, such as 'what are you most scared of?', 'if you were invisible for the day, what would you do?' and 'who is the funniest player in the team?'

This year, for the first time, we had three international junior fans from Sweden, Switzerland and Ireland dialling in to the Q&A via video conference to speak to the players.

Sonny told us: "It's a great opportunity for our young fans to come to the Training Centre, watch us train and ask us the questions they have always wanted to ask.

"It was a really enjoyable experience for us and it's great to be able to give something back to our fans of the future."

Take a look at the day in pictures:



Membership is now closed for this season, but you can be the first to know when 2018-19 One Hotspur membership launches. Register your interest here at tottenhamhotspur.com/we-are-one

Playing for England here at Wembley in May, 1972

WEMBLEY MEMORIES

Each matchday, Andy Greeves speaks to a former Spurs player about his memories of Wembley Stadium during his career. This evening, Martin Chivers looks back on a number of goal scoring appearances for club and country at the national stadium

Having netted five times in six matches en route to our inaugural League Cup Final of February 27, 1971, Martin Chivers was looking to carry that form into his first-ever Wembley Stadium appearance. The Southampton-born forward, who also got 21 strikes in 42 league games that season, wore his regular number nine shirt that afternoon as we took on Aston Villa at the 'Home of Football'.

"Prior to the kick-off, and as I always tried to do before any game, I remember hitting the ball into the back of the empty net once the presentations were out of the way," recalls Martin, who stands third on our all-time list of goal scorers with 174 strikes in 376 competitive matches. "Pat Jennings wasn't even standing in the goal at the time… it was just about getting that feeling of striking a ball well and seeing it going into the goal."

Chivers' pre-match ritual served him well that afternoon as he scored twice against then-Third Division outfit Aston Villa in the last 12 minutes of the match.

"Villa played well, particularly in the first half of that game," reflects Chiv. "In the second half though, we started to create a number of chances. I remember the ball breaking to me about eight yards out for my first goal that day. Their keeper (John Dunn) had made a save from Jimmy Neighbour and it presented me with an open goal. I anticipated where the ball was going, ran in and slotted it home with Villa defenders diving in to try to block my shot.

> TO END UP SCORING TWICE IN A HOME INTERNATIONAL AGAINST THE 'AULD ENEMY' WAS A DREAM, JUST AS SCORING TWICE IN MY FIRST GAME THERE FOR SPURS IN A CUP FINAL HAD BEEN

"The other goal was a good one. Alan Mullery played a great forward pass and I took control of the ball with three defenders around me. I managed to shield it, before turning and hitting it with my left foot into the back of the net. I had a good chance to get a hat-trick before the end of the game too, but I hit my shot straight at the goalkeeper. That would have been something very special to get a hat-trick on my first Wembley appearance but two goals and a winners' medal wasn't a bad day's work!"

That League Cup triumph came during an excellent year for Martin. The forward had made his England debut in Malta that February and scored his first international goal in a 3-0 victory over Greece at Wembley a few months later. He netted twice for the Three Lions against Malta at the 'Home of Football' in May and bagged another brace here on May 22, 1971, in a 3-1 win over Scotland.

"The Scotland game was one of the best memories that I have of Wembley," comments Chivers. "The players spent the week winding each other up in the press prior to the game… there was always so much hype around that fixture. I always kept quiet as I didn't like to say I was going to score goals or anything like that! To end up scoring twice in a Home International against the 'auld enemy' was a dream, just as scoring twice in my first game there for Spurs in a cup final had been.

Martin and Bill Nicholson celebrate our 1971 League Cup success

"I loved the Home Internationals, coming up against players you saw week in, week out. They were always tough matches and real physical battles. I remember facing Mike England for Wales on a number of occasion. I managed to score once against Wales at Wembley (in a 3-0 win for England on May 15, 1973), which was a good achievement up against mighty Mike."

Chivers boasted a fine goal scoring record for England here at Wembley, with seven strikes in 11 internationals, while he notched 13 times in 24 matches for the Three Lions overall. While there were many highlights for the forward at the 'Venue of Legends', there was one huge disappointment that came on October 17, 1973. England needed a win against Poland that night in their final 1974 FIFA World Cup qualifier to guarantee their place in the tournament. Despite managing 36 shots to the visitors' two – as well as hitting the woodwork twice, having four efforts cleared off the line and forcing 26 corners - Sir Alf Ramsey's men could only manage a 1-1 draw and were eliminated.

"It was an absolute nightmare," laments Martin, on the match that proved to be his last in an England shirt. "We had such a good team then, indeed Sir Alf Ramsey described us as his best ever team. We absolutely battered Poland that night but we just couldn't get the goal we needed to get the victory.

"What their goalkeeper Jan Tomaszewski didn't stop, the post or their defenders did. We were devastated at the result. What a lot of people forget is that same Polish team went on to finish third at the tournament. They were a good team, but of course that doesn't make the disappointment of missing out on a World Cup any easier to take."

Thankfully, 1973 delivered another magical moment for Chiv at Wembley on March 3 that year, as we returned to the venue to win the League Cup once again, this time beating Norwich City 1-0 in the Final.

"I always think of the game as dear Ralphy's final," smiles Chivers, who was roommate of the match-winner Ralph Coates at that time. "I remember his goal well, which came from a long throw. There was a scramble and the ball came out to Ralphy at the edge of the box. He kept his head down and smacked it in.

"He celebrated by running as fast as he could and I think Steve Perryman was the only player to run after him. The rest of us all decided to wait for him to come back to our half and preserve our energy! It wasn't a great final. Norwich were determined to stop us playing and I can't really remember them having any chances. But we got the win and that's all that matters when you're playing in a cup final."

Martin, who also won the UEFA Cup and Anglo-Italian League Cup during his long and successful career with us, turned out for the likes of Servette, Norwich City and Brighton & Hove Albion prior to retiring in 1983. He had also played for his home city club Southampton before signing for us in 1968. An inductee to the Tottenham Hotspur Hall of Fame in 2007, Chiv continues to work as a matchday host for us.

"We've had a great season at Wembley and with the form we've shown, opposition teams have dreaded coming to playing us here," he comments. "Off the pitch, there are great facilities and it has worked for us from that perspective too. All that said, there's nothing like home and I'm really looking forward to us moving back to Tottenham next season. I just hope we settle in at the new stadium as quickly and as well as we have at Wembley this season."
